BUILDERS ASSOCIATION OF METROPOLITAN PITTSBURGH
CODE OF ETHICS

Members and Associates of the Builders Association shall agree to and be bound by the following Code of Ethics as found in Article IV of the Association By-Laws:

Members of the Association believe and affirm that:

Our paramount responsibility is to our customers, our community and our country.

Members shall deal fairly with their employees, subcontractors and suppliers.

Honesty is our guiding business policy.

High standards of health, safety, sanitation and energy conservation shall be built into every structure.

As members of a progressive industry we encourage research to develop new materials, new building techniques, new building equipment and improved methods of financing, to the end that every customer may get the greatest value possible for every dollar.

All sound legislative proposals affecting our industry and the people we serve shall have our informed and vigorous support.

We hold inviolate the free enterprise system and the American way of life. We pledge our support to our associates, our local, state and national associations and all related industries concerned with the preservation of legitimate rights and freedoms.

We assume these responsibilities freely and solemnly, mindful that they are part of our obligation as members of the Builders Association of Metropolitan Pittsburgh.

I agree to abide by the Association’s Code of Ethics
